From Crisis to What? Recent Changes in Argentina's Politics

Giorgio Alberti
University of Bologna

Dr. Alberti is professor of Theory of Political Development at Università degli Studi di Bologna (Italy) and the Director of the Buenos Aires center of the same university offering a Master's Program on "International Relations: The European Union and Latin America". Was co-director of the Cornell-IEP (Lima) project on Study of Change in Peruvian Villages. Has been visiting professor at Columbia, Cornell and Universidad Católica de Lima. Taught "Political Modernization in Latin America" at the Bologna Center of the Johns Hopkins University" for twenty years. Has written books and articles on peasant movements, agrarian reform, organization of industrial interests and theoretical issues in the study of democratization in Latin America.

Location
Room 9204
The Graduate Center
365 Fifth Avenue
New York City

Thursday
April 5
12:30 P.M.

(Across from Empire State Bldg)

To reserve, send email to bildner@gc.cuny.edu or leave message at 212 817-2096