Social Consequences and Prospects of Economic Restructuring and Reform in Cuba

Claes Brundenius
Associate Professor and Senior Research Fellow
Center of Development Research, Copenhagen, Denmark

Claes Brundenius is at presently working on problems of economic restructuring in transition economies, notably Cuba, Vietnam and China. Between 1976 and 1996 he was Research Fellow (and between 1987 and 1992 Deputy Director) at the Research Policy Institute of Lund University, Sweden, where he was directing studies on Science and Technology Policies in the Third World. He has a PhD in Economic History from Lund University and has also done undergraduate studies at Brandeis University, USA. He has been serving on various Research Councils and Editorial Boards and is at present member of the Reference Group of the Swedish Research Council for Development Research and of the Editorial Board of the European Journal of Development Research.

Tuesday
September 11, 2001
2:00 P.M.

Room 9205 (Ninth Floor Conference Room)
The Graduate Center
365 Fifth Avenue (@ 34th Street)

To reserve, send email to bildner@gc.cuny.edu or leave message at 212 817-2096

This event is organized by The Cuba Project (Queens College and GSUC/City University of New York), with generous support from the Ford Foundation and the Christopher Reynolds Foundation.