You are invited to an Alumni Event

Wednesday March 6, 2013
5:00 p.m.

Marcella Bencivenni
(Ph.D., History, 2003)

Today, Italian Americans are perceived as ultraconservatives interested in food and family—a perception reinforced by the Mafioso stereotype popularized and even glorified by Hollywood movies, television series, and commercials. Drawing from her book, Italian Immigrant Radical Culture (New York University Press, 2011) Bencivenni shows that Italian Americans possess a vibrant, if largely forgotten, radical past.

Carol Quirke
(Ph.D., History, 2005)

Introduction by Joshua B. Freeman, History, The Graduate Center and Queens College, CUNY

History Lounge—Room 5114
The Graduate Center
365 Fifth Avenue
New York City

RSVP preferred to Marilyn Weber at mweber@gc.cuny.edu or 212.817.8430.