Graduate Center of CUNY

Minutes Computer Science Executive Committee Meeting October 9th, 2009

Present: Kent Boklan (Queens), Amotz Bar-Noy (Brooklyn), Gabor Herman (Graduate Center), Abdullah Tansel (Baruch), Michael Anshel (CCNY), Ping Ji (John Jay), William Sakas (Hunter), Susan Imberman, (Staten Island), Ted Brown (EO), Joanna Klukowska (student), Yi Feng (student), Matthew Johnson (student)

Minutes for September 11th 2009 meeting were approved.

Announcements by EO
- Multiple Position Reports approved for all three GC faculty.
- Middle States Review of the graduate center this year. More to come.
- This year’s budget cut ($53 million) will not affect CUNY.
- There are 4 lines available for hire in cyber-infrastructure and one line is at the Grad Ctr. We have formed a committee – Gabor Herman, Kent Boklan, Anne Henderson, William Bialik and Felisa Vazquez-Abad. We will advertise the position in CRA.

New Business
- Professor Andrew Rosenberg is a new faculty member Computer Science Queens College and provisional at the Graduate Center.
- Professor Shamik Sengupta from John Jay College has asked to become member of the Computer Science Program – voted as a provisional member.
- Professor Souren Paul from College of Staten Island has asked to become member of the Computer Science Program – Not approved.
- Professor Hunter R. Johnson from John Jay College asked to become member of the Computer Science Program – Not approved.

(Votes taken in executive session)
Meeting was adjourned.