Acknowledgments

This volume is a collaborative effort in which each chapter and respective authors' research and analysis furthers the study of a diverse array of issues in a current Cuba. A large number of organizations and individuals need to be thanked for their support of the Changing Cuba/Changing World conference and this volume. The long list would need to start with the faculty and students at the City University of New York in the organizing committee, the conference participants and the contributing authors featured in this volume, and the Bildner Center and Cuba Project staff.

The list of organizers includes Jerry Carlson, Raquel Chang-Rodriguez, Margaret Crahan, Ilan Ehrlich, Sujathat Fernandes, Ted Henken, Ana Maria Hernandez, Kathy Lopez, Alfonso Quiroz, Carlos Riobo, Araceli Tinajero. Araceli Tinajero and Ted Henken worked with me in the conference executive committee.

The conference would not have been possible without financial support from the Christopher Reynolds Foundation, the Office of the Vice-Chancellor at the City University of New York, the Graduate Center, Queens College, and Julien Studley.

Staff at the Cuba Project and the Bildner Center worked hard to make the conference a success. Thanks to Janaina Saad, John Freeman, John Arias, Hernan Giraldo, Astrid Guerrero, and David Jancsics. Jackie Slater and Jacob Lederman helped proof read and lay out the volume.
