How do I connect to the GCcommunity wireless network using Mac OSX?

Effective: August 11, 2015
Last Updated: August 11, 2015

This FAQ contains:

- Instructions on how to wirelessly get your Mac connected to the GC network

To connect to the GCcommunity Wireless Network Using Mac OS X:

1. Log into the Mac with your local Mac username and password.
2. Click on the Airport icon to choose a wireless connection.

   Fig.1. Airport icon

3. Choose the GCcommunity from the list of networks as shown below (Fig. 2)

   Fig.2. List of Networks

4. When prompted, please type your GC username and password.
5. Click the Remember this network check box, then click the OK button. (Fig. 3)

   Fig.3. "Remember this network" checkbox
To disconnect from the GCcommunity wireless:

1. Click on the apple icon 🍎.

2. Choose System Preferences, then click the Network icon. (Fig.4)

   !Fig.4. Network icon

   The Network settings page will appear.

3. Click the Disconnect button. (Fig.5)

   !Fig.5. Disconnect button