What is Website Services?

This FAQ contains:

- Website services definition
- Website services FAQ
- Website services help

What is website services?

Website Services is a platform that allows easy creation of websites for a variety of purposes including conference and group sites, CVs and personal sites, and general interest blogs. The GC provides instant access to a variety of themes, plugins, and templates to begin building a website. Access for the GC staff, faculty, and students is available using the user's fully qualified username/email address and password.

Got questions?

See the knowledge base in the FAQ section on website services. (Fig. 1)

Fig. 1. Website Services FAQs
What is Website Services?

Need Help?

To get help, fill out the form on the website services page. (Fig. 2)

Fig. 2. Website Services Help

Last Updated August 20, 2015