

OFFICE OF INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS
APPLICATION FOR CERTIFICATE OF ELIGIBILITY (ACE)

To apply for Forms I-20 or DS-2019

International students who are admitted into a degree program must obtain a Certificate of Eligibility (Form I-20 for F-1 Students or Form DS-2019 for J-1 Students) to enter and/or remain in the U.S. in valid F-1 or J-1 student status. This applies whether you are a new student, a transfer student from another U.S. university, or a transfer student from another CUNY college.

The Certificate of Eligibility will be issued only if you have received an admissions letter and if you have properly completed and returned this form, and all documentation of financial support verifying that you have adequate financial resources to meet your expenses during the period of your study in the U.S.

Please complete this Application for Certificate of Eligibility and Declaration & Certification of Finances and email them directly to the Office of International Students at intstu@gc.cuny.edu with all required documentation (see Checklist below). If you are admitted and request a postponement of your admission, you will need to request and complete a new application for Certificate of Eligibility form.

Students from European Union Countries: In addition to this application, please also complete and submit the Acknowledgement Regarding Protection of Personal Data available here: F-1 students or J-1 students.
