February 18 (Skylight Room, 9th Floor)
Ann Stoler (The New School for Social Research)
“On the Colony as a Political Concept: Durabilities of Imperial Duress.”

February 25
Ilana Feldman (George Washington University)
“Life Lived in Relief: Humanitarian Effects, Political Claims, and Palestinian Refugee Community”

March 4
Religion: A Conversation with Michael Gilsenan (New York University), Omri Elisha (Queens College, CUNY), and Elizabeth McAlister (Wesleyan University)
Moderator: Kenneth Guest (Baruch College, CUNY)

March 11
Ben Orlove (Columbia University)
“Recognitions and Responsibilities in the Era of Climate Change: How the World Has Come to Care about the Far North, Small Islands and High Mountains.”

March 18
Doug Boyer (Brooklyn College, CUNY)
“New Quantitative Approaches to Comparative and Functional Anatomy in Primates”

March 25
Katherine Verdery (The Graduate Center, CUNY)
“Secrets and Truths: Knowledge Practices of the Romanian Secret Police”

April 1
Stefan Helmreich and Heather Paxson (MIT)
“The Ethnography of Microbial Abundance: From Fermented Foods to Astrobiology”

April 8
Bronwyn Parry (University of London)
“The Status of the Trace: Governmentality and the Body in the Age of Biosurveillance”

April 15
Leigh Binford (College of Staten Island, CUNY)
“Class and Collectivity In, Through and Following the Salvadoran Civil War: Northern Morazán—from Guerrilla Rearguard to Migrant Hothouse”

April 29
Richard Wilson (University of Connecticut)
“Writing History in International Criminal Trials”

May 6
Alyshia Gálvez (Lehman College, CUNY)
“Immigrant Citizenship: Interactions of Immigrants with Public Prenatal Care in New York City and the Paradox of Belonging”

All colloquia take place on Fridays, 4:15-6:00 Room C415A unless otherwise noted
Receptions following the colloquia in the Brockway Room, Rm. 6402

The Graduate Center, City University of New York
365 Fifth Avenue, NY 10016
http://web.gc.cuny.edu/anthropology