Program

3:30 pm: “Foreign Direct Investment and the Environment”
Nadejda Doytch and Merih Uctum (Brooklyn College)

3:50 pm: “Forward Guidance: Is it Useful after the Crisis?”
Lilia Maliar (CUNY Graduate Center) and John Taylor (Stanford University)

4:10 pm: “Excessive Credit Variation: Is Inequality the Culprit?”
Chu-Ping C. Vijverberg (College of Staten Island)

4:30 pm: Coffee Break

4:40 pm: "A Top-Down Mean-Variance Framework for Options Pricing and Investment"
Liuren Wu (Baruch College)

5:00 pm: “Nonparametric Specification Testing of Conditional Asset Pricing Models”
Francisco Peñaranda (Queens College), J. M. Rodriguez-Poo (University of Cantabria), and Stefan Sperlich (University of Geneve)

A reception will follow in Room 5313. Students and faculty members are invited.

Organized by: Chu-Ping C. Vijverberg chuping.vijverberg@csi.cuny.edu