

GC Economics Program Alumni Day

Date: May 15, 2014

Time: 4:30-8 pm

Reception:

4:30pm

Light Fare & Refreshments will be served

Awards:

5:30pm

Roundtable discussion:

6:00pm-7:30pm

Location:

Skylight Room, 9th floor
the Graduate Center,
CUNY

Round Table Discussion

*Organized by the Economics Ph.D. Program and
The Doctor of Public Health Program,
Graduate Center, City University of New York*

“The Affordable Care Act and Its Critiques: The Good, the Bad and the Ugly”

Participants:

Alan Monheit, Professor and Associate Dean for Academic and Faculty Affairs, Rutgers University (Economics Program Alumnus)

“The ACA: A Radical Approach to Improving Equity and Efficiency in US Health Care?”

Dahlia Remler, Professor, Baruch College and the Graduate Center, CUNY

“The ACA: What it Does and Does Not Solve”

Shoshanna Sofaer, Professor, Baruch College and the Graduate Center, CUNY

“The ACA: Opportunities and Challenges to Reducing Uninsurance and its Consequences”

Moderator: Tami Luhby, Senior Writer, CNN Money

Ph.D. Program in Economics, The Graduate Center, City University of New York
365 5th Avenue, New York, NY 10016 Phone: 212 817 8265

