

Criminal Justice Doctoral Comprehensive Exam
Reading List for Quantitative Methods

- Bachman, Ronet and Raymond Paternoster (2017). Statistical Methods for Criminology and Criminal Justice (fourth edition). Sage Publication, Inc: Thousand Oaks, CA.
- Allison, Paul D. (1999). Multiple Regression: A Primer. Pine Forge Press, Inc.: Thousand Oaks, CA.
- Hayes, Andrew F. (2013) Introduction to Mediation, Moderation, and Conditional Process Analysis. The Guilford Press: New York, NY.
- Long, J. Scott. Regression Models for Categorical and Limited Dependent Variables. Sage Publication, Inc: Thousand Oaks, CA.
- Long, J. Scott & Freese, Jeremy. Regression Models for Categorical and Limited Dependent Variables Using Stata. Stata Press: College Station, TX.
- All the class materials provided by the instructor during Fall and Spring semesters (e.g., ppt slides, homework, practice exams, empirical articles)