

Grants and Fellowships for Ph.D. students in Criminal Justice, John Jay College of Criminal Justice and the Graduate Center, City University of New York
(Compiled by Lidia Vásquez, Amy Adamczyk, and Samantha Majic)

Updated: 23/January/2019

Institution	Grant	Description	Deadline	Link
National Institute of Justice (NIJ)	Ph.D. Graduate Research Fellowship (GRF)	The program provides awards for research on crime, violence, and other criminal justice-related topics to accredited universities that support graduate study leading to research-based doctoral degrees. NIJ invests in doctoral education by supporting universities that sponsor students who demonstrate the potential to successfully complete doctoral degree programs in disciplines relevant to the mission of NIJ. *Graduate students are eligible for funding under all NIJ solicitations	It varies. For fiscal year 2018, it was open from January to early March. On 2017, it was open from September to November 2016	https://nij.gov/funding/fellowships/graduate-research-fellowship/Pages/welcome.aspx
	NIJ's Research Assistantship Program	The NIJ Research Assistantship Program (RAP) offers highly qualified doctoral students the opportunity to bring their expertise to NIJ to work across offices and program areas to obtain a practical and applied research experience. We welcome students from all academic disciplines to apply and connect their research to the criminal justice field.	January 25	https://nij.gov/funding/Pages/research-assistantship.aspx?utm_source=eblast-govdelivery&utm_medium=email&utm_campaign=rap2019
National Science Foundation (NSF)	SBE Doctoral Dissertation Research Improvement Awards (sociology)	Grants to doctoral students to improve the quality of dissertation research. These grants provide funds for items not normally available through the student's university. Additionally, these grants allow doctoral students to undertake significant data-gathering projects and to conduct field research in settings away from their campus that would not otherwise be possible. Proposals are judged on the basis of their scientific merit, including the theoretical importance of the research question and the appropriateness of the proposed data and methodology to be used in addressing the question.	February and October of each year	https://www.nsf.gov/funding/pgm_summ.jsp?pims_id=505118&org=NSF&sel_org=SBE&from=fund
	Graduate Research Fellowship Program	The purpose of the NSF Graduate Research Fellowship Program (GRFP) is to help ensure the vitality and diversity of the scientific and engineering workforce in the United States. The program recognizes and supports outstanding graduate students who are pursuing research-based masters and doctoral degrees in fields within	October of each year	https://www.nsf.gov/funding/pgm_summ.jsp?pims_id=6201&org=NSF&sel_org=SBE&from=fund

		NSF's mission. The GRFP provides three years of support for the graduate education of individuals who have demonstrated their potential for significant achievements in science and engineering research. The ranks of NSF Fellows include numerous individuals who have made transformative breakthroughs in science and engineering research, many who have become leaders in their chosen careers, and some who have been honored as Nobel laureates.
American Association of University Women (AAUW)	American Fellowships	American Fellowships support women doctoral candidates completing dissertations, scholars seeking funds for postdoctoral research leave from accredited institutions, or Short-Term Research for publication. Candidates must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents. Candidates are evaluated on the basis of scholarly excellence, the quality and originality of project design, and active commitment to helping women and girls through service in their communities, professions, or fields of research.	Applications become available August 1 st November 1	https://www.aauw.org/what-we-do/educational-awards/american-fellowships/
	International fellowships	International Fellowships are awarded for full-time study or research in the United States to women who are not United States citizens or permanent residents. Both graduate and postgraduate study at accredited institutions are supported. Several fellowships are available for study outside of the U.S.	Applications become available August 1 st November 15	https://www.aauw.org/what-we-do/educational-awards/international-fellowships/
American Council of Learned Societies (ACLS)	Mellon/ACLS Dissertation Completion Fellowships	ACLS invites applications for the competition for the Mellon/ACLS Dissertation Completion Fellowships, which support a year of research and writing to help advanced graduate students in the humanities and related social sciences in the last year of Ph.D. dissertation writing. The program encourages timely completion of the Ph.D. Applicants must be prepared to complete their dissertations within the period of their fellowship tenure and no later than August 31 of the year following the application. * Applicants must have completed all requirements for the Ph.D. except the dissertation and obtained ABD (all but dissertation) status by the application deadline. Applicants must be no more than six years into the degree program at the time of application.	Past submissions due October and November	https://www.acls.org/Competitions-and-Deadlines/Mellon-ACLS-Dissertation-Completion-Fellowships
Social Science Research Council (SSRC)	International Dissertation Research Fellowship (IDRF)	Support to graduate students in the humanities and social sciences who are enrolled in doctoral programs in the United States and conducting dissertation research outside of the United States. IDRF promotes research that is situated in a specific discipline and geographical region but is also informed by interdisciplinary and	November	http://www.ssrc.org/fellowships/idrf-fellowship/cross-regional perspectives. Research topics may address all periods in history, but applicants should be alert to the broader implications of their research as it relates to contemporary issues and debates. Seventy-five fellowships are awarded annually.

Fulbright	Study or Research in Academic & Creative and Performing Arts Fields	The majority of U.S. Student Fulbright Grants are designed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To conduct study and/or research • In one country • For an academic year These are the traditional Fulbright Grants and offer the greatest flexibility	Online application between April and October	https://us.fulbrightonline.org/applicants/getting-started
Association for the Sociology of Religion (ASR)	Fichter Research Grant Competition	Applications are invited from scholars involved in promising research the area of women and religion; this includes religion and gender issues, and feminist perspectives on religion. For the 2011 competition, a total of $12,000 is available to be awarded. Dissertation research qualifies for funding.	May 1	https://www.sociologyofreligion.com/lectures-papers/fichter-research-grant-competition/
The Religious Research Association (RRA)	Constant H. Jacquet Research Awards	Research projects must use social scientific methods and perspectives to study aspects of religion, and all proposals must discuss how the research is applicable for religious organizations, leaders, and/or practitioners. Grants in excess of $4,000 to a single recipient/agency are rare. Applied, client-centered projects are given priority, but basic research is also regularly funded. The Committee especially encourages proposal submissions from scholars who are in the early stages of their careers, as well as proposals from students. Applicants are required to be members of the RRA. Full-time students may join the Association at the time of their application.	April 30	http://www.rraweb.org/constant-h-jacquet-research-awards/
American Sociological Association (ASA)	Community Action Research Initiative (CARI) Grant	To encourage sociologists to undertake community action projects that bring social science knowledge, methods, and expertise to bear in addressing community-identified issues and concerns. Grant applications are encouraged from sociologists seeking to work with community organizations, local public interest groups, or community action projects. Graduate students are eligible to apply, but CARI funds cannot be used to support dissertation research. Appointments will run for the duration of the project, whether the activity is to be undertaken during the year, in the summer, or for other time-spans	August 31	http://www.asanet.org/career-center/grants-and-fellowships/community-action-research-initiative-grant
	ASA Minority Fellowship Program	Through its Minority Fellowship Program (MFP), the American Sociological Association (ASA) supports the development and training of sociologists of color in any sub-area or specialty in the discipline.	January 31	http://www.asanet.org/career-center/grants-and-fellowships/minority-fellowship-program

		Areas of interest for former Fellows include social psychology, gender and sexuality, education, medicine and health, inequalities and stratification, race and ethnicity, and more. All of these areas of research and expertise are not just important for the growth of the discipline, but also to address important issues facing society. Eligibility: Specifically, applicants must be members of one of the following racial/ethnic groups: Blacks/African Americans, Latinos/as (e.g., Mexican Americans, Puerto Ricans, Cubans), American Indians or Alaskan Natives, and Asians (e.g., Chinese, Japanese, Korean, Southeast Asian), or Pacific Islanders (e.g., Hawaiian, Guamanian, Samoan, Filipino). Fellows must be citizens or non-citizen nationals of the U.S., have been lawfully admitted to the U.S. for permanent residence, or be eligible under DACA		fellowships/minority-fellowship-program
	ASA Congressional Fellowship	The ASA encourages applications for its Congressional Fellowship. The Fellowship brings a PhD-level sociologist to Washington, DC, to work as a staff member on a congressional committee, in a congressional member office, or in a congressional agency (e.g., the Government Accountability Office). This intensive six-month experience reveals the intricacies of the policy making process to the sociological fellow, and shows the usefulness of sociological data and concepts to policy issues.	February 15	http://www.asanet.org/sites/default/files/savvy/footnotes/dec15/fellow_1215.html
American Bar Foundation (ABA) American Bar Foundation (ABA)	Doctoral Fellowship Program in Law & Inequality	The American Bar Foundation (ABF), is committed to developing the next generation of scholars in the field of law and social science. The purpose of the fellowship is to encourage original and significant empirical and interdisciplinary research on the study of law and inequality. For the Doctoral/Post-Doctoral Fellowships, applications are invited from outstanding students who are candidates for Ph.D. degrees in the social sciences. Applicants must have completed all doctoral requirements except the dissertation by September 1, 2019. Applicants who will have completed the dissertation prior to September 1, 2019 are also welcome to apply Only U.S. citizens are eligible to apply.	January 15	http://www.americanbarfoundation.org/research/Fellowshipopportunities/LawAndInequalityFellowshipsProgram.html
Ford Foundation	Pre-doctoral Fellowships	These fellowships provide three years of support for individuals engaged in graduate study leading to a Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) or Doctor of Science (Sc.D.) degree.	Mid-November	http://sites.nationalacademies.org/PGA/FordFellowships/PGA_171962

		Predoctoral fellowships will be awarded in a national competition administered by the National Research Council (NRC) of the National Academies on behalf of the Ford Foundation. The awards will be made to individuals who, in the judgment of the review panels, have demonstrated superior academic achievement, are committed to a career in teaching and research at the college or university level, show promise of future achievement as scholars and teachers, and are well prepared to use diversity as a resource for enriching the education of all students.
Ford Foundation	Dissertation Fellowships	The dissertation fellowships provide one year of support for individuals working to complete a dissertation leading to a Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) or Doctor of Science (Sc.D.) degree. Dissertation fellowships will be awarded in a national competition administered by the National Research Council (NRC) of the National Academies on behalf of the Ford Foundation. The awards will be made to individuals who, in the judgment of the review panels, have demonstrated superior academic achievement, are committed to a career in teaching and research at the college or university level, show promise of future achievement as scholars and teachers, and are well prepared to use diversity as a resource for enriching the education of all students. *Eligibility – Applicants must be Ph.D candidate - All U.S. citizens, U.S. nationals, and U.S. permanent residents (holders of a Permanent Resident Card), as well as individuals granted deferred action status under the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals Program¹, political asylees, and refugees, regardless of race, national origin, religion, gender, age, disability, or sexual orientation	Mid-November	http://sites.nationalacademies.org/pga/fordfellowships/pga_171939
The Harry Frank Guggenheim Foundation	Dissertation Fellowships	Questions that interest the foundation concern violence and aggression in relation to social change, intergroup conflict, war, terrorism, crime, and family relationships, among other subjects. Dissertations with no relevance to understanding human violence and aggression will not be supported. Priority will also be given to areas and methodologies not receiving adequate attention and support from other funding sources. These grants are made to Ph.D. candidates who are entering the dissertation stage of graduate school.	February 1	http://www.hfg.org/dff/guidelines.htm
Woodrow Wilson National	Individual Advanced Research Opportunities	The Individual Advanced Research Opportunities Program (IARO) provides students, scholars and professionals with support to perform	November 14	https://www.iefaf.org/scholarships/2123/Individual_Advanced_

Fellowship Foundation IREX		policy relevant field research in the countries of Eastern Europe and Eurasia. In addition to engaging in research in the region, the IARO fellowship gives scholars the opportunity to increase their understanding of critical, policy relevant issues, develop and sustain international networks, and collaborate with foreign scholars on topics vital to both the academic and policy-making communities. *Eligibility - Predoctoral Student IARO - U.S. Citizen - Must be enrolled in a PhD program during the grant period - Grant Duration: two to nine months		Research_Opportunities_(IARO)
The Inter-American Foundation (IAF)	Inter-American Foundation (IAF) Grassroots Development Fellowship	The Fellowship Program complements IAF's support for grassroots development in Latin America and the Caribbean, and preference is for those applicants whose careers or research projects are related to topics of greatest interest to the IAF. Fellowships provide support for field research in independent countries in Latin America or the Caribbean, except for Cuba. Proposals for field research in Puerto Rico or the Dutch, French and British territories are not accepted. Applicants must have U.S. citizenship, or be citizens of an independent Latin American or Caribbean country (except Cuba). *Applicants must have completed all course requirements and qualifying or comprehensive examinations for the doctoral degree before initiating IAF-funded field research.	Please check website for information regarding next competition	https://www.iie.org/P/programs/IAF-Grassroots-Development-Fellowship-Program
United States Institution of Peace (USIP)	Jennings Randolph Peace Scholarship Dissertation Program	The Jennings Randolph (JR) Program for International Peace awards nonresidential Peace Scholar Dissertation Scholarships to students at U.S. universities who are writing doctoral dissertations on topics related to peace, conflict, and international security. Each year the program awards approximately ten Peace Scholar Fellowships. Fellowships last for 10 months starting in September. Fellowships are open to citizens of any country. Dissertation projects in all disciplines are welcome.	opens in September and closes in November each year. The awards are announced in early spring.	https://www.usip.org/grants-fellowships/fellowships/jennings-randolph-peace-scholar-dissertation-fellowship-program
Graduate Women in Science (GWIS)	National Fellowships Program	The SDE/GWIS National Fellowships Program is proud to offer fellowships in 2019 to help increase knowledge in the natural sciences and to encourage research careers in the sciences by women. Endowment funds, mostly generated from bequests, provide the	January 11	https://www.gwis.org/page/fellowship_program

		annual income that supports scientific research done by GWIS award winners. For the 2018-2019 funding cycle, we distributed approximately $50,000 in fellowships funds to five deserving women scientists. A maximum of $10,000 may be requested - any proposal requesting over $10,000 will be disqualified. International students apply. Fields of social science that use the scientific method are eligible to apply. To be eligible, your research must use the scientific method as described below: Scientific Method <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Make Observations – Identify a Problem(s)/question(s) 2. Formulate a Hypothesis 3. Design an Experimental Protocol 4. Collect Data Evaluate Data – Draw Conclusions
Boston University African Studies Center – West African Research Association (WARA)	WARA Pre-Doctoral Fellowship Competition 2019	Applications are invited from graduate students for the WARA Pre-Doctoral Fellowship, for research in West Africa during the summer of 2019. Awardees will conduct research for a 2 to 3 month period in order to 1) prepare a doctoral research proposal; or 2) carry out research related to the completion of another terminal degree program (e.g. MFA or MPH). Funded through the Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs of the U.S. State Department, this competition is open to U.S. citizens who are currently enrolled in graduate programs at institutions of higher education in the United States. It is advisable that applicants be conversant in an African language spoken where they will be conducting research. Priority will be given to applicants who are at the pre-dissertation stage, that is, who will be returning to their institution to complete course work, exams, etc. before beginning their fieldwork.	February 1	https://www.bu.edu/wara/fellowship/pre-doctoral-fellowships/
ICPSR	Diversity Scholarship-Summer Program in Quantitative Methods of Social Research	The Diversity Scholarship is a waiver of Program Scholar (non-credit) registration fees to attend one or both of the four-week sessions in the ICPSR Summer Program (held in Ann Arbor, Michigan). The Diversity Scholarship is open to incoming students (students who have been accepted into graduate programs but who have not yet started their graduate work) and continuing graduate students (students already pursuing graduate work) from underrepresented groups in any discipline. Applicants must be enrolled in universities based in the United States. Recipients of the	March 31	https://www.icpsr.umich.edu/icpsrweb/content/sumprog/scholarships/diversity.html

		Diversity Scholarship will also receive a stipend to help cover travel, lodging, and living expenses.
100 HISPANIC WOMEN	100HW Graduate Fellowship	100 Hispanic Women Graduate Fellowship (100HWGF) provides financial assistance and leadership development to Latinas in graduate/post-graduate programs who excel academically and professionally, are committed to create social change, and to become active leaders in their communities and fields of study.	December	https://www.100hispanicwomen.org/programs-.html
NIH	Ruth L. Kirschstein National Research Service Award (NRSA)	The purpose of the Ruth L. Kirschstein National Research Service Award (NRSA) Individual Predoctoral Fellowship (Parent F31) is to enable promising predoctoral students to obtain individualized, mentored research training from outstanding faculty sponsors while conducting dissertation research. Applicants for this F31 program are expected to propose a dissertation research project and training plan in scientific health-related fields relevant to the mission of the participating Institutes and Centers.	February 16	https://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/pa-files/PA-18-671.html
Graduate Center/ CUNY	Irwin H. Polishook Doctoral Scholarship Award	Doctoral students in Anthropology, Audiology, Business, Criminal Justice, Economics, Educational Psychology, Linguistics, Nursing, Political Science, Psychology, Social Welfare, Sociology, Speech–Language–Hearing Sciences, and Urban Education who are currently registered full-time students and have completed at least one year of doctoral study at the Graduate Center are eligible to compete for the Irwin H. Polishook Doctoral Scholarship Award. The award will consist of two $2500 installments ($5000 total) during the 2019-2020 academic year so long as all the conditions continue to be met by the recipient.	Early January	http://www.citytech.cuny.edu/bzmaterials/docs/Application_Doctorial_Final.pdf
	Graduate Center/Center for Court Innovation Summer Fellowship	The Graduate Center, CUNY invites applications for a Summer Fellow who will be based at the Center for Court Innovation’s New York City offices. This $4000 fellowship will be offered by the Graduate Center to one (1) Ph.D. student from any program with primary policy and/or research interests in the work of the Center for Court Innovation. The primary responsibilities of the award winner will be to collaborate with the policy and research team at the Center for Court Innovation on specific projects. The fellowship recipient will be required to be in residence for 120 hours over the summer of 2019 at the Center for Court Innovation working for scheduled times from 10:00 AM to 4:00 PM on Monday through Friday. In addition, the recipient will be required to attend an orientation session at the Graduate Center, to do a brief presentation	February 11	https://www.gc.cuny.edu/CUNY_GC/media/CUNY-Graduate-Center/PDF/Provost/Fellowships/CUNY-CCI-summer-2019-(1).pdf

		on their work in August of 2019 at the Graduate Center, and write a blog post for the Graduate Center about their experiences before the end of the Fall 2019 semester.
	Schomburg Archival Dissertation Fellowship	The Schomburg Archival Dissertation Fellowship will be awarded to a student in any field of the humanities or social sciences who will significantly gain from an academic year in residency at the Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture. Students must be registered or on an approved leave of absence during the 2018-2019 academic year to be eligible to apply. For your application to be considered, you must be officially advanced to candidacy (level III) by the application deadline.	February 1	https://www.gc.cuny.edu/CUNY_GC/media/CUNY-Graduate-Center/PDF/Provost/Fellowships/2016-17-CUNY-Schomburg-Dissertation-Fellowship-Guidelines-and-Instructions-10-15-15.pdf
	Doctoral Student Research Grant program	The mission of the Doctoral Student Research Grant Program is to foster a research-oriented academic culture among Ph.D. students by: (a) providing incentives for students to model and meet, early in their careers, the requirements for succeeding in the competition for funds by clearly defining a problem, a project, and a realistic budget; (b) providing an occasion for faculty-student mentoring relationships that are oriented around the concrete problems of proposing, planning for, and executing research; and (c) furthering student professional progress by providing funds for pre-doctoral research publications, presentations, and professional networking For Round 14, applicants may submit a budget between $250 and $1,500. However, keep in mind that if you are awarded, you won't necessarily get as much as you requested.	January 31	http://www.gc.cuny.edu/CUNY_GC/media/CUNY-Graduate-Center/DSRGguidelines.pdf
	The CUNY Graduate Center Dissertation Fellowship Competition	Students must be registered or on an approved leave of absence during the 2018-2019 academic year to be eligible to apply. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Students must be officially advanced to candidacy (level III) before February 14, 2019. • Students who have previously received a dissertation fellowship of more than $10,000 from the Graduate Center are not eligible. • Dissertation Fellowships are intended for students who expect to complete the dissertation during 	February 16	https://www.gc.cuny.edu/CUNY_GC/media/CUNY-Graduate-Center/PDF/Provost/Form%20Documents/2019-20-GC-Dissertation-Fellowship-Application-

		2019-2020 award year; the applicant's likelihood of completing the dissertation during this period may be taken into consideration in the selection process.		Guidelines-and-Instructions_1.pdf
	Provost's Pre-Dissertation Research Fellowship	The Provost's Office is pleased to announce the following pre-dissertation fellowship competition for doctoral students in the humanities and social sciences. These summer awards provide $4,000. This fellowship program has two objectives: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To allow students to conduct pre-dissertation research and training following completion of the first exam. • To support the development of a dissertation research proposal suitable for submission to an external funding agency. 	January 26	https://www.gc.cuny.edu/CUNY_GC/media/CUNY-Graduate-Center/PDF/Financia1%20Aid/Provost-s-Office-Summer-Research-Award-Guidelines-2018.pdf
	Schomburg Archival Dissertation Fellowship	The Schomburg Archival Dissertation Fellowship will be awarded to a student in any field of the humanities or social sciences who will significantly gain from an academic year in residency at the Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture Eligibility- Students must be registered or on an approved leave of absence during the 2018-2019 academic year to be eligible to apply. For your application to be considered, you must be officially advanced to candidacy (level III) by the application deadline.	February 1	https://americanstudiescp.commons.gc.cuny.edu/wp-content/blogs.dir/3027/files/2018/11/2019-20-CUNY-Schomburg-Dissertation-Fellowship-Guidelines-and-Instructions.pdf
	ARC Student Research Awards	Students who accept this award will join ARC student/faculty research cluster meetings led by ARC Distinguished Fellows from within and outside of the CUNY system working in related areas. They will be required to attend three (3) cluster meetings during the semester. Themes are: 1) Immigration, 2) Inequality, 3) Multilingualism & Translation, 4) Global Cities, 5) Critical University Studies	January 31	https://www.gc.cuny.edu/CUNY_GC/media/CUNY-Graduate-Center/PDF/Health/Student-ARC-Fellowship-2019-Cover-Letter-and-application.pdf
	Urban Studies Core Dissertation Fellowship	Two awards will be offered at $35,000 and three awards will be offered at $10,000. The larger fellowships are for one year of field research or data collection and analysis, to be held after a dissertation proposal has been approved and before the final write-up of the results. It will be held for one academic year, beginning in July 2019. The smaller fellowships may be for summer research in service of drafting a dissertation proposal or to meet post-proposal data collection efforts such as travel, data collection expenses, transcription, or similar purposes.	January 9	http://www.citytech.cuny.edu/bzmaterials/

		To be considered for the $35,000 award students must be level III (advanced to candidacy) and have an approved dissertation proposal but not yet be at the final stage of writing up results to be considered for the $10,000 fellowships students can be level II or level III.
	Early Research Initiative (ERI) Award for Archival Research in African American and African Diaspora Studies	A summer stipend of $4,000 will be given to support doctoral students for work in archives, repositories, and special collections (public and private) that focuses directly on the history, society, and culture of Africans and persons of African descent. The award is available for both Level III students to assist in the completion of a chapter or substantive portion of their dissertation and Level II students whose research agenda could be substantially improved by access to archival materials prior to the submission of their dissertation prospectus.	January 25th	https://www.gc.cuny.edu/CUNY_GC/media/CUNY-Graduate-Center/PDF/Health/ERI-Archival-Research-Awards-Description-and-Guidelines-2018.pdf
	ERI Knickerbocker Archival Research Grant in American Studies	Provides a modest summer stipend of up to $4,000 for doctoral students at the Graduate Center to begin their archival dissertation research.	January 25th	https://www.gc.cuny.edu/CUNY_GC/media/CUNY-Graduate-Center/PDF/Financial%20Aid/ERI-Archival-Research-Awards-Description-and-Guidelines-2018.pdf
NYCCT Foundation	A Zeller Scholarship	The Belle Zeller Fund offers scholarships to undergraduate students at CUNY as well as to a student in the CUNY Law School and a student in the CUNY doctoral programs. The award is based on outstanding academic achievement and noteworthy social commitment as measured by service to the university and other communities. The applicant should keep these criteria in mind when preparing the application and in the selection of evaluators.	February 18	http://www.citytech.cuny.edu/bzmaterials/docs/Application_Docctorial_Final.pdf
ACUNS	2019 Dissertation Award	The ACUNS Dissertation Fellowship Award recognizes emerging students of extraordinary potential who have reached the stage of writing an advanced graduate-level dissertation on a topic of direct and demonstrable relevance to the United Nations and/or the UN system. Applications not thus related to the UN and/or UN system will not be considered. Eligible candidates may be citizens of any country and must be entering the writing stage of a PhD, JSD, or LLM level degree—for example, a doctoral candidate who has defended her/his dissertation	February 19	https://acuns.org/2019da/proposal and who has completed the majority of field research, and who now is writing a first draft of the dissertation.

Horowitz Foundation for Social Policy	Grant	The foundation supports projects with a social policy application on either a global or local level. Applications are evaluated based on the Trustees' assessment of criteria such as: feasibility, applicability, originality, methodology, theoretically informed or empirically rich research, and letters of recommendation. No specific weight is given to any one area. Proposals are evaluated based on overall merit of all aspects of the application. Eligibility: Applicants must be current PhD candidates who are working on their dissertation; Applicants must not have a PhD; those who do, are ineligible; Applicants must have defended their dissertation proposal or had their topic approved by their department; Applicants can be from any country and any university in the world. US citizenship or residency is not required.	Open in Spring	https://www.horowitz-foundation.org/grant-info
PEO	P.E.O. International Peace Scholarship (IPS)	The International Peace Scholarship Fund, established in 1949, is a program which provides scholarships for selected women from other countries for graduate study in the United States and Canada. An applicant must be qualified for admission to full-time graduate study and working toward a graduate degree in an accredited college or university in the United States or Canada. A student who is a citizen or permanent resident of the United States or Canada is not eligible. Note: A student with residency for tax purposes only is permitted.	Mid December	http://www.peointernational.org/about-peo-international-peace-scholarship-ips
Society for the Scientific Study of Religion (SSSR)	Jack Shand Research Grants	A generous bequest from Jack Shand, a long-term member of SSSR until his death in 2001, has made it possible for SSSR to offer Jack Shand Research Grants to support research in the social scientific study of religion.	August 1, 2019	https://sssreligion.org/awards-grants/jack-shand-research-grants/
	Student Research Grants	The Society for the Scientific Study of Religion offers annual research grants to assist graduate students in their research. Although these grants are normally used for dissertation support, other significant research is eligible. The ordinary maximum award is $3,000. Grants are intended to cover research expenses, travel, research assistance, and up to $1500 in stipend for the researcher's	May 1, 2019.	https://sssreligion.org/awards-grants/student-research-grants/own time. Grant recipients have two years to spend their awards and are expected to submit a brief report on their research.

	Student Travel Grants	Travel assistance to help defray the costs of attending the annual meetings is available for graduate students	March 31, 2019	https://sssreligion.org/awards-grants/student-travel-grants/
Louisville Institute	Doctoral Fellowship	The Doctoral Fellowship (DOC) program offers up to ten fellowships of $2,000 a year for two years to Ph.D. or Th.D. students to consider theological education as their vocation. In addition, the cohort of ten Doctoral Fellows meets three times during each fellowship year.	MARCH 1, 2019	https://louisville-institute.org/programs-grants-and-fellowships/fellowships/doctoral-fellowship/
	Dissertation Fellowship	The Dissertation Fellowship (DF) program supports the final year Ph.D. or Th.D. dissertation writing for students engaged in research pertaining to North American Christianity, especially projects with the potential to strengthen the religious life of North American Christians and their institutions, including seminaries, while simultaneously advancing American religious and theological scholarship.	FEBRUARY 1, 2019	https://louisville-institute.org/programs-grants-and-fellowships/fellowships/dissertation-fellowship/