ABOUT THE CENTER

The Center for the Study of Women and Society organizes events to promote the work of scholars engaged with issues related to gender. In Fall 2018, we ask that you join us for our series featuring events co-sponsored with our partner organizations, which include the Women Writing Women’s Lives Collective, the Center for LGBTQ Studies (CLAGS), the Society for the Study of Women in the Renaissance, the Institute for Research on the African Diaspora in the Americas and the Caribbean (IRADAC), The Feminist Press, among others.

ROXANE GAY IN CONVERSATION WITH KATIA D. ULYSSE

Roxane Gay, award-winning author of Hunger: A Memoir of My Body (2017), Difficult Women (2017), and Bad Feminist (2014), among other works, will join us for a reading and conversation in the Critical Caribbean Feminisms series. Following the reading, Gay, Ulysse, and BCRW Associate Director Tami Navarro will discuss various forms of writing—novels, memoir, and social media interventions—and examine how these create space for conversations around and advocacy for social justice.
