

Application Information and Form

Crossing Latinidades 2022 Summer Institute in Latino Humanities Studies Methodologies and Theories for Pre-Candidacy Doctoral Students

Information about the Summer Institute is available here.

Eligibility Criteria.

To be eligible for consideration for this opportunity, you must be:

- A CUNY student enrolled in a Ph.D. program in the humanities or humanistic social sciences
- In your second or third year of doctoral study, having nearly completed or completed your coursework and not yet advanced to doctoral candidacy
- Be considering dissertation research in Latino studies, and interested in developing ideas for the dissertation topic in Latino Studies during the spring 2022 semester
- Planning to enroll in the home institution during the 2022-2023 academic year
- Considering a career in academia after completing your Ph.D.
- Willing to be in-residence during the two-week Summer Institute at the University of Illinois at Chicago. Participants will be strongly encouraged to also attend the Latino Studies Association Conference at the University of Notre Dame, July 11-14, 2022. Notre Dame is about a two-hour train/bus ride from Chicago.
- Willing to participate in all sessions of a professionalization and mentorship program during the fall 2022 and spring 2023 semesters

Applicants who are selected for the Summer Institute will be required to:

- Attend and actively participate in all sessions during the two weeks
- Do a paper presentation of the possible topic of the dissertation during the seminar
- Be ready to work on the initial stages of the proposal during the institute's scheduled writing periods.

After this training, participants will be eligible to be considered for Pre-doctoral Research Fellowship in a Crossing Latinidades academic research working group in 2022-23.

CUNY application deadline: January 31, 2022

Instructions

Your application must include the following components.

1. Completed the Cover Sheet and Eligibility questionnaire, included below.
2. A CV/resume, no more than two pages in length
3. A narrative statement, 1000 words maximum, explaining your research interests, possible dissertation topic, professional goals, and how the Summer Institute and the mentorship program will benefit you at this stage of your studies.

Combine all three of these documents, in order, into a single PDF document for electronic submission to the CLACLS email: claccls@gc.cuny.edu. Submissions must include subject header line "Crossing Latinidades Summer Institute Application – Student Name."

4. Arrange for two confidential letters of recommendation to be submitted to the CLACLS application email: claccls@gc.cuny.edu. Please advise your letter writers to include "Confidential Letter of Recommendation - Student Name" in the subject line when submitting your letters. It is suggested letters be from faculty familiar with the your academic, research history, and potential. Letters must be received by January 31, 2022.

Crossing Latinidades
2022 Summer Institute in Latino Humanities Studies Methodologies and Theories for Pre-Candidacy Doctoral Students

Cover Sheet and Eligibility Questionnaire

Name:

Tel:

Email:

Doctoral Program in which you are enrolled:

Approximately what percent of your required and elective coursework have you completed?

In what term do you expect to advance to doctoral candidacy?

Have you chosen your dissertation advisor? Yes No

 If yes, who are they?

 Name:

 Campus affiliation(s):

 Program or departmental affiliation(s):

Would you like to be considered for the Predoctoral Research Fellowship 2022-2023? You would need to be willing to work with a comparative collaborative Latino Humanities Studies research working group. Yes No

Attestation

I affirm that: a) I meet the eligibility requirements for this program
 b) If selected, I will fully participate in the 2022 Summer Institute and follow-on professional development and mentorship activities in fall 2022 and spring 2023.

Signature

Date: