<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>DATE &amp; TIME</th>
<th>LOCATION *</th>
<th>PRESENTATION</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Wednesday Feb 26  |            | Scott Lilienfeld, PhD
Emory University
Beneath the Mask: The Controversial Search for Successful Psychopathy                                                |
| 12-1 pm           |            |                                                                                                                                           |
| Thursday, February 27 |        | Heiðís B Valdimarsdóttir, PhD
Oncological Sciences, Mount Sinai School of Medicine and University of Iceland
Distress and Social Constraints on Emotional expression: Theories and Interventions                          |
| 10-11:30 am       |            |                                                                                                                                           |
| Wednesday March 5 |            | Hoda Badr, PhD
Oncological Sciences, Mount Sinai School of Medicine
Psychosocial Interventions for Cancer Patients and their Caregivers: State of the Science and New Directions |
| 12-1 pm           |            |                                                                                                                                           |
| Thursday, March 20 |        | Joel Erblich, PhD
Hunter College
A Biopsychosocial Approach to Drug Craving                                                                        |
| 10-11:30 am       |            |                                                                                                                                           |
| Wednesday, April 2 |            | Sally Dickerson, PhD
UC Irvine and the National Science Foundation
Social-Evaluative Threat: Effects on Emotion, Physiology, and Health                                                |
| 3-4:30 pm         |            |                                                                                                                                           |
| Wednesday, April 9 |            | Dan Klein, PhD
Stony Brook University
Risk Markers for Depressive and Anxiety Disorders In Early and Middle Childhood                                      |
| 12-1 pm           |            |                                                                                                                                           |
| Thursday, May 1   |            | Allison Applebaum, PhD
Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center
Psychosocial Care for the Cancer Caregiver: The State of the Science and Future Directions                  |
| 10-11:30 am       |            |                                                                                                                                           |
* Location of Talks

Hunter College: North Building, Room 611.
Non-CUNY visitors must enter the college at the West Building (SW corner of 68th St and Lexington) and sign in at the desk with photo ID to get a visitor’s badge. Then take the escalator to the 3rd floor and then make a right into the corridor through Thomas Hunter Hall (NOT the glass one that crosses Lexington) to the North Building. Take the first set of elevators to the 6th floor, turn right on exiting, turn left at Psychology, and enter through the double doors. Room 611 is on your left at the end of the hall. Leave at least 15 minutes from sign in to getting to the room.

Graduate Center: Room 6494 or 6304.01
All talks will be in Room 6494 with the exception of Sally Dickerson’s talk, which will be in Room 6304.01. After signing in at the desk with photo ID, take elevators to the 6th floor, walk toward the vitrines, enter through the glass double doors.
- For 6494, make a right and then quick left. Room 6494 is on your left near the end of the hall.
- For 6304.01, make a left, go through the glass door, make a quick right and the door is on your left.