Advanced Research Collaborative’s Spring 2023 Seminar Schedule

Thursdays, 4:00-5:30 (except for Tuesday, March 14th) | The Graduate Center, Rm. 5318 | Zoom

February 9: ARC BOOK TALK: Leketi Makalela, former ARC Scholar

Not Eleven Languages: Translanguaging and South African Multilingualism in Concert

Professor, Wits School of Education, University of the Witwatersrand, South Africa

February 16: Adele Kudish Alcaly-Bodian Scholar

“If the Shoe Fits: Cinderella Narratives in Proust and Nella Larsen”

Professor of English, Borough of Manhattan Community College, CUNY

February 23: Victoria Haskins

“Out of Place: travelling ayahs and amahs and the settler colonial nation”

Professor of History, The University of Newcastle, Australia

March 2: Elise Van Nederveen Meerkerk

“Where did all the labor go? Gender and the decline of hand spinning worldwide”

Professor of Economic and Social History, Utrecht University, The Netherlands

March 9: Roberto Iacono

“The pitfalls of compulsory activation policy – Evidence from the Norwegian welfare state”

Associate Professor in Economics and Social Policy, Norwegian University of Science and Technology, Norway

March 10: David Abraham

“Group Rights and Individual Minority Rights in Immigrant Societies, Then and Now”

Professor of Law, Emeritus University of Miami School of Law

March 16: Linda Martin Alcoff

“The Historical Formation of Races”

Professor of Philosophy, Hunter College and The Graduate Center, CUNY

March 30: Adriana Espinosa

“Child maltreatment and discrimination on substance use among Hispanic individuals: Can ethnic identity centrality influence the path?”

Associate Professor of Psychology, City College and The Graduate Center, CUNY

April 20: Mara Sidney

“The Everyday City in Washington Heights and Inwood: How Residents Interact with Policies to Produce Neighborhoods”

Professor, Department of Political Science, Rutgers University-Newark

April 27: Joseph Heathcott

“Subtraction: Urban Landscapes and the Legacies of Racial Capitalism”

Chair of Urban and Environmental Studies, The New School

May 4: Debbie Sonu

“How to Become a Fallen Demagogue: The Reputational Politics of ‘Cotton’ Tom Heflin”

Associate Professor of Education, Graduate Center, CUNY

May 11: Gary Alan Fine

“How to Become a Fallen Demagogue: The Reputational Politics of ‘Cotton’ Tom Heflin”

Professor of Sociology, Northwestern University

May 18: Swapna Banerjee

“The Many Worlds of Indian Ayahs: From the Colonial Households in India to the Trans-Atlantic Domains (Eighteenth through Twenty-First Centuries)”

Professor of History, Brooklyn College and The Graduate Center, CUNY

May 25: Jan Willem Duyvendak

“The Return of the Native: Can Liberalism Safeguard Us Against Nativism?”

Distinguished Research Professor of Sociology at the University of Amsterdam / Director of the Netherlands Institute for Advanced Study in the Humanities and Social Sciences

Many thanks to Helen Bodian and Roger Alcaly for their continued support of the ARC Seminar Series