Calling all applicants from historically marginalized or minoritized backgrounds!

Virtual Open House

Clinical Psychology @ John Jay College/CUNY

This event is for applicants from historically marginalized or minoritized backgrounds in Clinical Psychology, which may include Black, Latine, Indigenous, and other people of color, those who identify as LGBTQIA+, persons with disabilities, those who come from low-income backgrounds, and those who are/were first-generation college students.

During the Virtual Open House, applicants will have the opportunity to learn more about the Forensic Psychology and Social Justice focus of our program, learn tips about how to prepare a competitive application for our program, informally meet current graduate students and faculty members, and learn about ongoing diversity and inclusion initiatives in our program and community.
